Two Trains Wrecked

An Open Switch Causes a Collision at Albany, N. Y.

BUT ONE PASSENGER KILLED.

Thirty Others Miraculously Escape Death. Although a Number of Them are Seriously Injured—Names of the Wounded and Extent of Their Injuries.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 3.—A south bound Delaware and Hudson train through train in charge of Conductor Acker, ran through an open switch at the Kenwood junction, near here, about 4:20 yesterday afternoon, and into the north-bound West Shore train due here at 4:30. The drawing room car "Argyle" and two passenger coaches of the Delaware and Hudson train, were thrown from the track. Thomas Conniff, a passenger on the West Shore train, residing in Albany, was killed, and several others were more or less seriously injured.

There were about thirty passengers on the Delaware and Hudson train, and their escape from death is marvelous, as the two cars turned completely over on their sides, and the inmates had to be taken out through the windows.

The names of the most seriously injured are: Mrs. E. M. Pittman, of Troy, injured about the back and head; Mrs. Henderson, of West Troy, cut on the head and injured internally, not serious; Joseph Perkins, of Binghamton, engineer of the Delaware and Hudson train, leg injured by jumping; Matthew Turner, fireman of the Delaware and Hudson train, slightly injured about arms by jumping—he resides at Quaker street; Mrs. Barlow, of Coeyman's junction, badly bruised; William Mould, of Saugerties, back hurt; H. T. Finch and wife, of Brooklyn, internal injuries; Mrs. Kate Bowers, of Catskill, arm injured; C. J. Wright, of Peekskill, arm sprained; R. J. Kepple, of Utica, arm sprained; W. T. Burnside, of New York, arm lacerated; G. C. Morris, of 136 South Fourth street, Philadelphia, badly shaken up; J. P. Foster, of Jersey City, leg hurt; Engineer Perkins, arm broken.

The track was blocked for several hours.

BANK ROBBER CONFESSES.

How the Teller Robbed the Wheeling Bank of $35,000.

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 3.—Harry Seybold, the teller of the bank of Wheeling, who, with two other employees was arrested Thursday night, charged with embezzling funds of the bank, made a full confession yesterday. He exonerated George Hennig, one of the parties arrested, from all blame and said that he took the money on the 10th of May last. The package contained $24,000 in cash, and was removed from the vault to Seybold's home. There he kept it until June 6, when he deposited $12,000 in various banks to the joint credit of himself and Hennig, telling all who asked about it that they had won the money in the Louisiana lottery.

To Hennig he said that he had borrowed the money and intended to buy a gold mine with it. About $14,000 of the money has been recovered and property to about a like amount has been attached so the bank will be partly protected.

The erring clerk was arraigned before Justice George Arkle yesterday afternoon. He waived the formal hearing and was released in $4,000 bail for his appearance at court. The bond was furnished by the young man's father.

It is now certain that the Bank of Wheeling has lost from $32,000 to $35,000 by the theft during the past two years, the stolen ranging from $80 to $1,700. A watch was put upon the bank, but the culprit could not be detected.

DARING DAYLIGHT ROBBERY.

A Thief Gets Away With a Whole Handful of Diamonds at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 3.—A daring thief entered the jewelry store of F. G. Altman at 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon, secured $1,500 worth of diamonds and made his escape. He was well dressed, and when he asked to be shown some diamonds, a tray containing a large number of valuable set-stones was placed on the counter before him. After a few minutes' examination of the jewels he grabbed a handful and bolted for the door.

He was followed by Mr. Altman and a large crowd for some distance, but by flourishing a revolver in the faces of his pursuers, he succeeded in keeping them at bay. The thief then went through a saloon into an alley where he entered the basement of a bookstore, walked up the stairs and passed through the main door unmolested, the clerks having no suspicion that he was a thief. Reaching the street, he entered a hack and was driven away, since then he has not been seen.

A SMALL BATTLE.

Striking Italians Fire on an Officer, Who Retaliates by Shooting One Down.

BEAVER, Pa., Aug. 3.—Sixty workmen were brought to this place by the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railway to do special work for the company. The striking Italians thought they were going to take their places and ordered them away.

Detective Cook ordered the Italians to their quarters, but instead of going a number drew revolvers and began shooting at the officer. The detective sought refuge in a coal car and returned the fire, shooting one of the Italians severely. Sheriff Welsh appeared and ordered the Italians away from the track.

GETTING TO POLITICS.

The Constitutional Convention in a Dead-lock at Helena, Mont.—Elsewhere.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 3.—The constitutional convention yesterday adopted a clause forbidding legislators, judges or members of the board of equalization, from accepting railroad passes, under penalty of forfeiting their offices. It was decided that the senate shall consist of sixteen members and the house of fifty-five.

The question of apportioning the state for senatorial representation led to a struggle between the Democrats and Republicans, the former desiring representation according to population and the latter wishing each county to have a senator. The Republicans tried to secure a recess, but this was defeated by a tie vote and the convention then adjourned, leaving the question still unsettled.

In Dakota.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 3.—Practically the only business done by the South Dakota constitutional convention was at the morning session when the amendment came up to make elections for state officers and legislators coincident with those for congressmen and county officers. After a debate lasting three hours the amendment was lost by a tie vote, but was afterwards reconsidered.

At the evening session the amendment to limit the first term of the state officers to January 1891, was carried by a vote of 40 to 33. This will cause an election of state officers next year and make all elections coincident.

A Day of Discussion.

OLYMPIA, W. T., Aug. 3.—The constitutional convention spent the day discussing the article on corporation. One section requiring corporations doing business in the state to have their books with a complete record of transfers of stock and business transactions open to inspection was defeated. Another section providing for an elective board of railroad commissioners, who shall have absolute control of all transportation was still under debate when the convention adjourned. There is every indication that it will be beaten also.

WILL SHAKE THE CAROLINAS.

Over 78,000 Colored People to Leave Those States.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—A special from Raleigh, N. C., says: The committee appointed by the Colored Emigration convention, which met here in April, to go to the west and southwest, examine the country and learn what arrangements can be made for the movement of a large body of colored people from North Carolina, expects to leave here for the southwest Sunday. The committee say that over 78,000 names of those who will move have been enrolled, and that these have agreed to be ready to start in forty-eight hours after notice has been given, provided the commission makes a favorable report.

It is said by the committee that the people in the southwestern states have held meetings, composed of farmers, business men and capitalists, who have been appointed committees to meet and confer with the North Carolina commissioners, and to offer such inducements as will direct the tide of immigration in that direction. If the conditions are favorable and the committee shall so report, it is thought by the committee that at least 50,000 people will be moved next fall. Louisiana, Tennessee, Kansas, Arkansas, Texas and California seem to be making preparations to increase their colored population at the expense of North Carolina. Exodus agents from Kansas and Arkansas are expected here Saturday to accompany the commissioners from this state.

LAUNCHING DAY.

A Little Boy Pushed Off a Pier and Drowned in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Thomas Robins, aged 12, was pushed off the pier at the foot of West Twenty-sixth street into the North river yesterday, by Patrick Casey, aged 14, and was drowned. Casey was arrested. The first Friday in August is known among the boys that frequent the river front as "launching day." For more than a generation it has been the custom of the boys on that day to engage in a promiscuous ducking of one another at the piers.

While a party of lads were thus "launching" each other yesterday, young Casey approached Robins and asked if he could swim. Robins said he could not, but Casey either misunderstood or disregarded the answer, and began wrestling with Robins, who was finally pushed into the river. He sank at once, and was drowned before help could reach him. This is the first fatality connected with "launching day," so far back as any of those familiar with the custom can remember. It will probably cause the police to break up the practice.

HA PER'S CASE.

The President Will Not Pass Upon It Until After His Return From Maine.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The papers in the Harper case were laid before the president yesterday, but he is not likely to have a chance to examine them until after his return from Bar Harbor.

The attorney general's report upon the application for Harper's pardon is an adverse one. It was made after a careful examination of all the extenuating circumstances alleged in petitions numerous signed, which were offset by a goodly number of protests from citizens of Cincinnati familiar with the wrecking of the Fidelity National bank.

A Stay of Execution Granted.

EATON, O., Aug. 3.—The circuit court in session here has granted a stay of execution until Nov. 21, in the case of Elmer L. Sharkey, who was sentenced to hang Sept. 13, and is now confined in the penitentiary annex.

Utilizing Niagara.

Force of the Falls to Be Mechanically Applied.

PLANS AND RIGHTS SECURED.

It is Intended By Means of Electrical Dynamos to Furnish Light Power and Heat to Various Points Within a Radius of Forty Miles.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—An important meeting of the directors and stockholders of the Niagara Hydraulic Electric company was held yesterday at their office in Alexandria, Va., for the purpose of receiving reports and perfecting plans to utilize the water power at Niagara Falls. This company has secured the grant from the Ontario government to use the water at the Horseshoe falls on the Canadian side. The Hamilton patents for mechanical improvements which regulate the flow of water and controls its use and power are owned by this company.

Eminent engineers have approved plans which provide for tunnelling through the rocks at a point several hundred feet above the falls, under the bed of the Niagara river, thereby securing a plentiful supply of water for the power needed and without disfiguring or interfering with the beauty of the scenery at the falls. It is proposed to construct a roadway leading from the old Maid of the Mist landing to the mouth of the proposed tunnel, so that the massive machinery required, can be put in place without occasioning inconvenience to visiting tourists or residents of the locality.

With the water power secured it is intended by means of electrical dynamos, capable of transmitting strong currents of electricity long distances to furnish light power and heat to various points within a radius of forty miles. Electrical railways will be built to Buffalo, Lockport, Batavia and intermediate points, and on the Canadian side to Clifton, Hamilton and other places.

A syndicate of American and Canadian capitalists have undertaken the construction of the work.

An adjourned meeting of the stockholders will be held at the Hotel Bartholdi in New York on Tuesday, Aug. 6, to complete the arrangements.

Claims the $100,000 Prize.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 3.—S. H. Palmer, a mechanic employed in the New York Central car wheel works, has surprised the promoters of the scheme for giving a $100,000 prize for the best plan of utilizing the Niagara Falls torrent by putting in a demand for the prize. As the money was never paid in, the demand created some consternation. Palmer's plan is simply a machine, consisting of an endless steel belt, which when set crosswise to the current exerts a resistless power. Palmer probably will not get a bonus prize, but he has interested some capitalists in his scheme.

Renewing Life.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—Dr. Ernest La Place, a celebrated French physician, arrived in this city last night to take the chair of pathology in the Medical-Chirurgical college. Dr. La Place believes there is nothing improbable in the theory of Dr. Brown-Sequard's elixir of life and an immense amount of possibility. He is confident that the experiments, if carried out on carefully calculated scientific principals, will be eminently satisfactory.

A Voluminous Report.

BOSTON, Aug. 3.—The special committee of the United States senate, which has just completed a tour of the Pacific coast and Canadian northwest, is in session here for the purpose of mapping out a program for its eastern investigation. The facts already accumulated by the committee will make a report of several hundred printed pages.

Chicago After the World's Fair.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—The executive committee of the world's fair committee met yesterday to perfect its organization, Mayor Creigier presiding. It was decided, after considerable discussion, that the committee organize a company under the title of "The World's Exposition of 1892." The capital stock of the company will be $5,000,000.

One Editor Kills Another.

GREENVILLE, Miss., Aug. 3.—C. M. Hull, editor of The Bolivar County Democrat, at Rosedale, Miss., was killed yesterday by L. A. Weissinger, editor of The Bolivar County Review, at that place. The Review was lately established and the editors have engaged in a bitter personal warfare in their respective columns.

Prisoners Escape From Jail.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 3.—A special to The Age-Herald from Blountsville says that all the prisoners in the county jail there escaped last night by climbing through the stove due to the roof and leaping to the ground. Among them was John Livingstone, who was charged with the murder of his sister.

More Appointments Expected.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Secretary Noble went to the executive mansion by appointment at 8 o'clock yesterday evening and was busily engaged until midnight discussing prospective appointments in the interior department. A number of appointments may soon be expected.

Illness of a Base Ball Manager.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—Manager Phillips, of the Pittsburgh base ball club, is no better, and there is little hope of his recovery. He may be sent to a private asylum for the insane.

SUNDAY LAWS.

How They Will be Enforced in Cincinnati Next Sunday.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 3.—Mayor Mosby, through Col. Dietrich, has issued full instructions to the police concerning their course toward common labor law violators next Sunday. The instructions explicitly provide that the police shall arrest that class of violators on Monday by warrants. The chief's order says that beer wagons will not be allowed upon the streets, and photographers cannot do any work connected with their business. Ice companies, butchers and dairies must make all deliveries before 8 a. m.

On the other hand daily papers may be sold, and special permits will be granted for the unloading of live stock and perishable goods from steamboats which arrive after 7 a. m. Peddlers will not be allowed to do business, nor will confectioners, fruit sellers, candy, ice cream and soda water people, nor withstanding the fact that Judge Ermonston has repeatedly dismissed that class of violators. In all cases bail must be accepted for the appearance of the defendants.

A Disastrous Train Storm.

TROY, N. Y., Aug. 3.—A heavy rain storm accompanied by high wind and lightning prevailed in this vicinity yesterday afternoon, flooding the streets, blowing down trees, upsetting wagons and other damage. General consternation prevailed while the storm lasted. A part of the new canal culvert at Thirty-first street was carried away and a heavy loss sustained. A man driving a load of hay was precipitated into the raging waters and was probably drowned. Minor damages were sustained at other points, which it is not possible to calculate at present.

Powderly's Resignation Again.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—There is again some talk here about T. V. Powderly resigning his position as general master workman of the Knights of Labor, and becoming a candidate for election to congress. This story has been started before every congressional election for the past six years. Sometimes the story is varied, substituting some government position for congress. Mr. Powderly has always laughed at such rumors, and his personal friends here say that there is just as much truth in this last story as in the previous ones.

A Painter's Drop.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 3.—Lewis Purdum, of Third and Baum, had a narrow escape from death shortly before 9 a. m. He was engaged in painting the suspension bridge, near the north pier, when he lost his balance and fell sixty-five feet into the river. He struck feet foremost, and as soon as he recovered his breath swam to the shore. He was completely exhausted, and suffering from internal injuries, and a patrol wagon removed him to the city hospital. Purdum is 35, and married.

All on Account of a Hog.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 3.—A fierce quarrel has broken out between the Smiths and the Slushers near Pineville, over a hog worth $2. The Smith's home was attacked Saturday last by the Slushers and a volley poured into the house. Smith retaliated by putting a guard armed with Winchester on Slusher's road to Flat Lick, the nearest village. Both sides are now well armed, and are watching for each other. Incidentally all travel along the road passing their house is cut off.

News from Behring Sea.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 3.—The sealing schooner Walker L. Rich arrived yesterday morning from Behring sea. She was in Alaska July 7 with five American schooners. The Rush left Ounak with the avowed purpose of capturing sealers. She returned on the 15th, stating she had captured the Black Diamond, and searched the Triumph, finding no skins. Nine American schooners have been sealing in Behring sea.

Conscious-Stricken.

ZANESVILLE, O., Aug. 3.—James Benjamin, a Morgan county farmer, committed suicide at McConnellsville yesterday by blowing out his brains with an old-fashioned rifle. No cause can be assigned for the deed other than a feeling of dissatisfaction over a verdict which he, as a member of a jury, was compelled to render against his will.

Removing an Old Landmark.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 3.—The work of tearing down the old state house began yesterday. A crowd of about 5,000 people assembled on the green to witness the operation, and much regret was expressed at the removal of the old landmark.

Frost in Illinois.

GALENA, Ill., Aug. 3.—The low grounds in this section were visited by a frost early Thursday morning which did considerable damage to growing vegetables. Corn suffered in most exposed places. Tobacco was also severely injured.

Willing to Compromise.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The Durham miners' committee has voted by a majority of one to accept an advance in wages of 10 per cent. in lieu of the higher sum demanded. This action averts what promised to be the greatest strike on record.

Two Children Drowned.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 3.—While Horatio Fraser and his wife and two children were boating on the Pawtuxet river yesterday, the boat capsized and the two children, aged 2 years and 6 months and 4 years old, were drowned.

Extent of the Coke Strike.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., Aug. 3.—Four hundred and fifty ovens are now idle in the Connellsville coke region, and over 4,000 men are out on a strike.

FACTS FOR VOTERS.

Senator Blackburn Gives the Republicans a Terrible Roasting.

Let Democrats Read and Then Roll Up a Rousing Majority for Their Nominees.

Senator Blackburn addressed the Democracy of Kenton and Campbell counties one day this week. About 3,000 people listened to his eloquent address and to his scathing denunciation of the Republican party. We quote a part of his speech. We trust every Democrat in Mason will read it and then roll up an old-time majority next Monday for Frazee, Poyntz and Sharp. He said:

The Republican party has violated every obligation it ever assumed. It has debauched the ballot. It has polluted every office that it ever touched, and has plundered every treasury it ever yet has guarded, and yet, in the face of this record, it comes before the people of Kentucky to-day, and, with an insolence that is past human comprehension, appeals to you to give it your support, to give it your confidence, to give it your vote. It tells us that the Democratic party should be dragged from power in Kentucky. It tells you that the Republican party is the best in point of honesty, and you ask for the reason and the answer is, forsooth, that a Democratic State official has proved recreant to the trust and defaulted, carrying with him into his exile $170,000 of Kentucky's money, and then with defiance they turn and ask us what we are going to do, and how we are going to get over Dick Tate's defalcation. Well, we answer them and tell them what we are not going to do. We do not intend to follow the example set us by the Republican fellows. We do not intend to lie about it. I do not propose to defend it, nor will I undertake an apology for it. We will tell the truth about it. We admit it. It is bad enough. Bad as they say. But that is not all of it, my countrymen. Who was it that detected that defalcation? Did we wait for a Republican to probe to its bottom and expose it to the world? No, sir. It was a Democratic Senator from the county of Hancock that introduced the resolution that brought this defalcation to light. It was a Democratic House that passed the resolutions impeaching the defalcating Treasurer and sent them to a Democratic Senate, presided over by your own worthy Representative, and by him presented to the Senate for trial and conviction, and it was that Democratic Senate that, without the wastage of an hour—without a single dissenting vote—vacated the Treasurer's office and put the brand upon him, and sent him, a wanderer and an exile, to the lands of foreign nations, never to look into the face of wife or child, or to grasp the hand of former friends, or to press the soil that gave him birth. It was the Democratic party that would have landed that Treasurer behind the bars of the penitentiary for the rest of his existence, except that he had put himself beyond the Judicial pale of the State. Now, contrast that, if you please, with the way that the Republican party treats its culprits. Did you ever hear of a Republican defaulter being hanged and drawn and quartered for his crime?

Did you ever hear of a Republican defaulter or thief being sent to the penitentiary? I never did but once, when General Grant was President. When the whisky thieves of Milwaukee, Chicago and St. Louis became so bold that the public could no longer stand it a Republican President, in an unguarded moment, never believing for a moment that anybody would notice it, let fall an unfortunate sentence, and said that he didn't intend to allow any guilty man to escape. Unfortunate was that declaration, for just at that time we had at the head of the Treasury Department a big-brained, broad-headed, handsome Kentuckian, Ben Bristow was Secretary of the Treasury, and he took grant at his word. He was just fool enough to believe that Grant meant what he said. He went to work to ferret out the rascals, and the result was that he put every mother's son of them in the penitentiary.

But they didn't stay there. Of course they didn't. None of them stayed there long enough to sleep over night, or get a meal, either. There was a Republican President at the head of the Government, and he would pardon them out faster than all the grand juries could indict them. General Grant pardoned them all out but one. He wouldn't pardon McDonald. You know the reason. It was necessary, because he had pardoned all the other thieves, because McDonald had committed the unpardonable sin of turning State's evidence and convicting the balance of the thieves.

Why don't you get some of your Republican friends to tell you about some of their own operations, not only in the Federal Government, not only in the Southern States, but right here in the sovereign Commonwealth of Kentucky? They need not go further than right here in Newport. They could find examples here that are not barred by the statute of limitations, either. Why don't they tell you about the last Republican Pension Agent that Kentucky was inflicted with, not more than five years ago? Why don't they tell you about the sixty odd thousand for which he defaulted? The most sacred fund a man ever held on earth, the money appropriated for the legless, the armless, the sightless comrades of his own army, the money belonging to the widows and the orphans of the soldiers with whom he served. Did they tell you anything about that? Did they tell you about the only instance, the only time (and I trust that there never will be a repetition of it), when a Cabinet officer was impeached for accepting bribes and being a thief? It goes without saying that he was a Republican Secretary of War.

When we proved him to be a thief by the imperishable record, by his signature upon the books of the express company, and on the vouchers and drafts, and by his indorse-

THEY'RE MOVING!

Never before at this season of the year have we enjoyed the trade we have this year. To be sure the profits are small—in fact on many lines we positively lose money, but we are securing room for our Fall and Winter Goods that are daily arriving. We will continue our ments upon the checks of the bank, and when I myself brought it to the bar of the committee room and asked him under oath what answer he had to make, the tears streamed down his face as he pleaded guilty and admitted that he was a thief. We thought we had that fellow. I knew how hard it was to get the Republican party to admit that any of its officials were sinners, and that all were not saints. But he was a Cabinet officer. He was proved by the record a self-convicted thief and we went to the Republican Senate and said, we have proved this man to be guilty; in the name of civilization, in God's name, punish this man.

I needn't tell you what was done. The history of the country has already told you. They told him that there was a mistake about it. They said that the records that convicted him lied. They said that Belknap was mistaken; he must have been dreaming when he made that confession. They acquitted him. They decided that he was innocent. They furnished him with a certificate of good character; they gave him a chrono, and to-day he is a leading light in Republican circles. Did they tell you about the $300,000,000 that the carpet-baggers stole in eleven Southern States during that dark period of reconstruction? If they didn't, they might have done it, and varied the monotony of their usual story.

DEMOCRATS, do your duty next Monday.

Let there be no Democratic stay-at-homes next Monday.

A FULL vote should be polled for Frazee, Poyntz and Sharp. Democrats, see that it is done.

DEMOCRATS can show their fealty to their party Monday only by turning out and voting for its nominees—Frazee, Poyntz and Sharp.

DEMOCRATS, remember the Republicans are counting on your staying at home next Monday. You can disappoint them, and you ought to do so. We want a full vote.

THE Democratic majority Monday may be large and it may be small. It all depends upon the voters. If they turn out and do their duty there will be cause for rejoicing. No Democrat should remain at home.

DR. BROWN-SEQUARD rejuvenates people with extract of guinea pig; Dr. W. Hammond with the extract of lamb. There is a great suspicion that Dr. Wm. Muldoon prescribes extract of mule.—Enquirer.

ENOUGH has been said to the Democrats of Mason to impress upon them the importance of polling a full vote Monday. To-day closes the contest so far as the papers are concerned, and if the warnings are heeded the result Monday will be an old-time Democratic majority.

ONE of the first acts of the constitutional conventions of both Washington and Montana Territories was the introduction of resolutions to prevent the formation of trusts and combinations. Every State ought to have laws to protect its citizens from these robber combinations.

It is important that Republicans and Democrats vote in favor of a constitutional convention. Every one will be counted against it if he does not vote for it. The vote Monday is not "for or against a new Constitution, as some may think, but it is on the question of calling a convention to prepare one for submission to the people, who will decide by their ballots whether they will adopt it or not. Every reasonable view of the question favors the calling of the convention, and the vote for it should be unanimous. After it has accomplished its task, the people will pass upon it, and that will be the final judgment, either adopting or rejecting it as the organic law of the State."

A company of Richmond gentlemen have had a survey made from a point on the K. C. to the top of Big Hill, and propose to build a railroad to that point. They have leased all the coal lands from Big Hill down Brush Creek to the K. C. The grade is a remarkably good one, and the cost of construction will be light. Parties from McKee, Jackson County, want the road extended to that place.

Messrs. Win McIlvain and Robert Humphreys have purchased the interest of Messrs. W. A. Grimes and son in the furniture and undertaking business of Grimes, Bramel & Co. The invoicing preparatory to the transfer of the property has been in progress several days. The business will be continued at the present stand on Sutton street under the firm name of McIlvain, Humphreys & Bramel. All the members of the new firm have a wide acquaintance throughout this section, are thoroughgoing business men and we bespeak for them a liberal share of the public patronage.

Mr. W. A. Grimes is undecided yet whether he will engage in business here again or not. Mr. J. Fletcher Grimes will likely go on the road for a Cincinnati furniture establishment. Their friends would be glad to see them all remain in Maysville, and it is to be hoped they will find it to their interest to do so.

RIPLEY'S LOSS.

Further Details of the Big Fire—The Damage Fully as Heavy as Reported.

A well-informed citizen of Ripley stated yesterday that the property destroyed by the big fire could hardly be replaced for much less than $100,000. This figure is a little high, no doubt, as the lumber mills, the principal property destroyed, originally cost only $40,000. They had been greatly improved, however. The present owners, Messrs. Killpatrick, Pritchard & Kirkpatrick, bought the property at commissioner's sale, under a decree of court, and got it at a bargain. They had only $15,000 insurance, it is reported, so their loss is a heavy one.

The property destroyed consisted of the double-band saw mill, the largest on the Ohio river, the big planing mill adjoining it, a smaller planing mill, a washboard factory, J. P. Parker's two-story brick residence west of the mills, and Wm. Rady's residence east of the mills. Mr. Parker's old foundry was damaged, but the fire department succeeded in saving his machine shops. His principal business is the manufacture of tobacco screws. The gas works and old piano factory were saved. The washboard factory had not been operated. The building was recently finished and the proprietors were awaiting the arrival of the machinery. It stood out on the bank almost in front of the big saw mill. Considerable lumber, mostly walnut, was burned. About $6,000 worth of stock, consisting of doors, sashes, frames, shutters, &c., was destroyed in the mills. The mill and lumber company had many orders ahead and was running a full force of hands. Over one hundred people are thrown out of employment. The company's pay-roll amounted to about $1,000 a week and as this was most all spent in the town for necessities of life the Ripley merchants will feel the loss, too.

The mills will likely be rebuilt, but not on as large a scale as before.

Keeping Up the Record.

The Fast Flying Virginian, westbound, was a little late yesterday afternoon, and sustained its reputation as a "runner." The fifty-one miles from Portsmouth to Maysville was covered in sixty-eight minutes, including a stop at Vauceburg. The run from here to Ripley was made eleven minutes.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach, and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

Hager and Hendricks.

Hon. John F. Hager, of Ashland, and Hon. W. J. Hendrick, of Flemingsburg, will address the people of Maysville and Mason County at the court house this (Saturday) night at 7:30 o'clock, on the political issues of the day. All are cordially invited and Democrats are especially urged to turn out.

MR. ALLAN COX came up from Cincinnati last evening and he and Rev. Thomas Hanford were made Knights Templar by Maysville Commandery No. 10. Mr. Cox still holds his position as draughtsman in the office of the C. & O. Railway Company.

MR. V. H. PERKINS, the well known Government Storekeeper, returned last evening from Keokuk, Iowa, where he was recently called by the death of his brother, Mr. John T. Perkins. He was accompanied by his mother, who resides at Tollesboro.

The largest excursion ever run out of Cincinnati was the one Thursday over the C. H. & D., to Niagara Falls. There were seven sections made up of two baggage cars, thirty-two day coaches, nine chair cars and thirty-seven sleepers, making a total of eighty cars.

The C. & O. operates two different lines from Clifton Forge on the Alleghenies to Richmond, Va. The Old Point Comfort excursion tickets will be good to return from Richmond, either via the main line through Charlottesville and the University of Virginia, or via Lynchburg and Natural Bridge.

REV. DR. TUCKLEY, of Covington, accompanied by Rev. Thomas Hanford, went out to Ruggles camp meeting this morning and will preach their to-morrow. Dr. Tuckley is an Englishman by birth but has been in this country for some time, and has had charge of several of the leading churches of his denomination.

MISS MAGGIE MALONE died this morning at 5 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Malone, near Clark's Station. She was fourteen years old, and had been ill the past eight months. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence. After services at St. Patrick's Church the remains will be interred at Washington.

If the Democrats hadn't turned out last night pretty strong, Hon. David G. Colson, Republican nominee for State Treasurer, wouldn't have had a very large audience to talk to. As it was there were a good many empty seats. "Standing room" was not at all in demand. Mr. Colson is a young man of fine appearance, a fluent speaker and his Republican friends were well pleased with his talk.

THE new ferry-boat at Ripley—the "Stone Brothers"—is one of the neatest and most conveniently arranged that we know of. She has speed, too, and Captain Matson runs her on business principles. He doesn't allow her to remain fifteen or twenty minutes at a landing, but when he sees a passenger on the other side he "goes" for him, and goes at once. The "Stone Brothers" has made as many as eighty-five trips in one day.

ELDER E. J. TEAGARDEN, the talented young pastor of the Dover Christian Church, has resigned and will leave soon to complete his education at Harvard. He graduated with honor from the Bible College of Lexington last June. He has had charge of the congregation at Dover for two years, during which he has done much to infuse new life into the church. The building has recently been repaired and greatly improved, at a cost of about $600. Elder Forrest, of Baltimore, will succeed him.

New Spring Wheat.

It Has Already Appeared Upon the Market.

ITS EFFECTS UPON BUSINESS.

A Large Yield and an Abundant Corn Crop Promises an Improvement in Trade—Reports From Leading Trade Centers Upon the Condition of Business.

New York, Aug. 2.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: The country begins to feel the stimulus of good crops. New spring wheat began to arrive at Chicago on the 1st, ten days earlier than last year. The St. Louis corn corner has no effect, an abundant yield is expected, and business in all departments is gaining. The Northwestern Miller estimates the wheat yield at 500,000,000 bushels, of excellent quality, and the mills at Minneapolis are active, with water plenty.

St. Paul naturally reports improvement in trade, and Milwaukee also, in all branches. At Omaha assurance of crops above average makes business excellent. In winter wheat regions, the improvement consequent upon a good yield has now been steady for some weeks, though at Kansas City, business is still rather quiet. In the iron regions a distinct increase in demand is felt, and here orders for one hundred new locomotives have been placed during the week. The certainty of large traffic also has its effect upon railroad negotiations, which have made progress toward peace.

The fact that under such circumstances, the stock market has gained during the week only forty cents on $100 in the average of prices, may be attributed to monetary uncertainties, and to the great volume of securities awaiting buyers. For the ill success of the interstate agreement and the recent legislation in western states have inclined many holders to sell, while projects for 50,000 miles of new railroad, and for a vast number of industrial trusts, have caused an unusual body of new stocks and bonds to be offered, of which but a small part has yet been placed.

The money markets of the interior continue generally well supplied; at Chicago, while active, the market is easy, but at Boston rates varied in July from 3 to 9 and back to 2 per cent, and the movement is now active at 3. To the general surprise demands from the interior are not felt here to any extent as yet, and treasury operations have only added $100,000 to the cash on hand for the week.

The volume of trade continues to exceed last year's, at New York 12 per cent, and outside 12½ per cent, according to clearings through banks. Exports for July from New York appear 14½ per cent larger than last year, with imports 5½ per cent larger, and these figures would point to an excess of about $11,000,000 imports over exports, and yet the large offering of bills against products to be moved hereafter prevents apprehension. The prospect is the better for a decline of 2½ cents in wheat during the week, though corn, oats and cotton for immediate delivery are fractionally higher. Pork products have all declined a little, and hogs twenty cents per one hundred pounds to $4.50.

The speculative movement in these products has not been large, sales of wheat reaching 15,000,000 bushels for the week, of corn 7,000,000, and of cotton 10,000 bales. But coffee is three-quarters stronger, with sales of $26,000. In oil only 3,700,000 barrels have been sold, and the price is about one cent lower.

The woolen industry still hesitates. Prices of wool are generally held up to the average for last month, but in fine fleeces there is some yielding in quotations, manufacturers finding no encouragement to look for higher prices for goods, and, therefore restricting purchases of wool to immediate needs. If the goods market does not soon improve a general yielding in wool would seem inevitable.

On the other hand more encouragement is felt in the iron business, the demand increasing. Pig is strong, and it is noticed that the stocks on hand, though large, are not one month's supply. A strike in the Connellsville Coke works, expected to embrace 12,000 men or more, does not appear at latest accounts to include more than 3,000, but it is feared that the struggle may cut off the supply of fuel, and thus affect the supply of iron. Bar iron is stronger, plates more active at full prices, and rails strong, though at present without considerable sales. Nails have been pressed for sale by some holders, so that hopes of improvement have been disappointed.

The coal trade is still sluggish, and prices do not seem to be maintained. Copper has not nominally changed, but two mines have stopped production because the current price does not suit, and tin has been weaker abroad, selling at 10.65 here. Lead has been active in speculation, rising to four cents. Several large failures in the boot and shoe and the leather trades have attracted attention, and yet the feature at present is the importunate demand of buyers for speedy delivery of goods. The producing capacity is largely in excess of demand on the whole, but no unsoundness in the trade has been suspected. The general movement of prices in July was upward, the change averaging one per cent for the month, but the situation toward the close and at the beginning of August appears to indicate a little reaction.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number, for the United States 191, and for Canada 19, or a total of 210, as compared with a total of 316 last week, and 208 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 216, representing 191 failures in the United States and 25 in the Dominion of Canada.

Wanted for Many Crimes.

Boston, Aug. 2.—The Herald this morning devotes nearly four columns to an account of the career in Boston of the man known in New York as A. Bently Worthington. It says that while pretending to practice as a lawyer here he swindled many persons, and a reward for his arrest has been outstanding for four years. He is wanted for forgery, larceny and other offenses. He had for aliases the names of Wood, Walton, Bouvier, Barrington, Ward and others.

ARRESTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

Two Charges Against the Treasurer of Warren County, Ohio.

LEBANON, O., Aug. 3.—The Graham investigating committee made a partial report at noon yesterday. Since Sept. 5, 1887, Graham has drawn $17,772.42. Of that amount, $10,493.37 was illegal and drawn upon fraudulent warrants. The auditor also received warrants from auditors of Butler and Montgomery counties to the amount of $1,161.72, which he appropriated to his own use. In addition to these amounts there are fraudulent warrants found in the treasurer's office stamped paid, of which no record is made in the auditor's order book, to the amount of $63,211.09.

In the fall of the year 1888 the commissioners sold $15,000 worth of bonds. The money was turned over to Treasurer Coleman, who has never charged himself with it, nor does it appear on his books. The report severely criticizes the action of the county commissioners. At the conclusion of the report Coleman was arrested on two charges of embezzlement, one of $25,000, the other $1,200. He was taken before Squire Blackburn and pleaded not guilty. At the request of his attorneys the case was continued. The report was not final. The committee hopes to finish their work and make the final report in a few days.

JOHNSTOWN FUND.

Distribution of the Moneys Underway, and Will Soon Be Completed.

JOHNSTOWN, Aug. 3.—Twenty thousand dollars was paid out by Treasurer Thompson from 12 o'clock till 4 yesterday. The work is in shape to be pushed right along now, and the money will soon be in the hands of the people. The board of inquiry expect to get through distributing orders next Wednesday, and before the end of the week the $500,000 will all be paid out.

Then checks will be sent to all in Classes 1, 2 and 3 for the balances due them, and the accounts in those three classes closed. They will be paid according to the basis first fixed by the board of enquiry, respectively $1,000, $600 and $400 each. As they have received respectively $600, $400 and $200 each, it will require less than $300,000 to pay them all off. This will leave over $1,000,000 to be distributed to those in classes 4, 5 and 6.

Two more bodies were taken from the debris yesterday. They were unrecognizable.

Building Struck by Lightning.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Aug. 3.—During a heavy thunder storm Friday morning the lightning struck the Mammoth Pottery works of L. B. Beerbuck & Company, setting it on fire. The flames were not extinguished until the building, stock and machinery had been damaged $33,000; insurance, $20,000.

Jay-Eye-See Off the Track.

RACINE, Wis., Aug. 3.—Jay-Eye-See, the phenomenal little gelding owned by J. I. Case, has gone lame, and will not be trotted in any races this season. It is feared that he will never again appear on the race track. The lameness is the result of an accident at Lexington, Ky., five years ago. Jay-Eye-See's lowest record is 2:10.

Kilrain Will Challenge Sullivan Again.

HAMPTON, Va., Aug. 3.—Kilrain is still here. He is not well. He stated in an interview that he was not satisfied with the fight with Sullivan, and that he will challenge him again as soon as he has his matters arranged. He says he will not fight in Mississippi. He will probably leave Hampton on Monday.

The Best Spring Medicine.

"In the spring of 1887 I was all run down. I would get up in the morning with so tired a feeling, and was so weak that I could hardly get around. I bought a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and before I had taken it a week I felt very much better. I can cheerfully recommend it to all who need a building up and strengthening medicine."
